

1884, ch 58.

153. The government of said town shall be vested in a mayor and five councilmen, to be elected as hereinafter provided. No person elected and qualified as mayor or councilman, or any person holding any office by election, appointment or otherwise, under the provisions of this sub-title of this article, or by virtue thereof, shall, during the term of his office, be interested directly or indirectly in any contract in which the town is a party or is interested; nor shall any such person, while holding such office, be directly or indirectly engaged in furnishing work, labor or materials for said town; and any person violating the provisions of this section shall be proceeded against by indictment in the circuit court for Washington county, and upon conviction, be fined and imprisoned, or both, in the discretion of the court.

Ibid.

154. The taxable limits of the town of Hagerstown are declared to be as follows: Beginning at a stone marked "H," standing near the west margin of South Potomac street extended, and south of and near the stone culvert over the Marsh run, said stone being also the beginning place of a former survey of Hagerstown, made July twenty-first, eighteen hundred and seventy-five, and recorded in liber number seventy-three, folios four hundred and seventy-seven, et cetera, of the land record books of Washington county; and running thence south three degrees west four hundred and eighty-three feet, south thirty-one and a half degrees west fifteen hundred and eighty-two feet, along the middle of the turnpike road leading to Sharpsburg; thence along the south margin of Rose Hill cemetery, south fifty-eight and one-half degrees east eight hundred and fifty-eight feet, to the southeast corner thereof; thence along the east side thereof, north thirty-one and one-half degrees east thirteen hundred and eighteen feet; thence north four and one-half degrees west three hundred and sixty-six feet; thence north eighty-eight and one-half degrees east (crossing the turnpike road leading to Funkstown) twenty-five hundred and fifty-seven feet; thence north fourteen and one-quarter degrees, east five hundred and forty-eight feet, to the intersection of the northeast line of the road leading from the east end of east Antietam street to John E. Rowland's mill, with the west line of a road leading northward to the Cavetown turnpike; thence